Desirable Qualifications

- Experience in or knowledge of complete investigative techniques, methodology and/or settlement of complaints.
- Ability to communicate effectively and establish and maintain cooperative working relationships with co-workers and members of the public, and display excellent customer service skills.
- Ability to operate a computer and knowledge of Excel and Word software programs.
- Ability to interpret and apply laws and regulations to specific situations.
- Ability to follow oral and written instruction and established procedures.
- Ability to gather and analyze facts and evidence; reason logically, draw valid conclusions, and make appropriate recommendations and participate effectively in investigations and interviews.
- Ability to prepare written documents and accurate detailed reports clearly and concisely.
- Experience working as a project leader or coordinating the efforts of representatives on projects.
- Ability to speak a second language (bilingual) or American Sign Language preferred, but not required.

Special Personal Requirements

Demonstrated ability to act independently, open-mindedness, flexibility, and tact.

Special Personal Characteristics

Ability to function in sensitive areas in a tactful and judicious manner; willingness to work irregular hours and to travel widely within an assigned area; demonstrated objectivity and emotional stability.

Personal Contacts

The Associate Government Program Analyst (AGPA) has daily contact with Departmental management and staff, complainants, respondents, legal representatives, and the general public.

Work Environment, Physical, or Mental Abilities:

The demands described here are representative of those that must be met by the incumbent to successfully perform the essential functions of the job.

- Requires ability to effectively handle stress, and work in a noisy and fast paced environment.
- Requires daily use of a personal computer and related software applications at a workstation.
- Requires ability to lift case files, office supplies, books and manuals (up to 20 pounds).
- Requires ability to complete tasks that require reaching, bending, grasping, and making repetitive hand movements in the performance of daily duties.
